Exterior shooting on Phase II of this training film project in three foreign locations was completed last week. The contract production crew and the OTR representatives have returned to the U. S. to begin production of interior scenes. No security, production, or personal problems arose during the field shooting. The exterior footage has been evaluated as excellent.

MANAGEMENT TRAINING

At the request of the Security Office, a 5 1/2-hour program is being presented to a group of secretaries on 12, 13 and 15 September. This program covers selected points of doctrine taught in the Supervision course, but it is presented from the point of view of the person being supervised.

DISCUSSION OF TRAINING WITH FSI

A luncheon attended by Harold Hoskins, Director of the Foreign Service Institute, Mr. Gentner, Assistant Director for Administration, FSI, and Mr. Franklin, Dean of School of International Studies, was held at the Cosmos Club on Monday, 12 September. The Director of Training, accompanied by three members of his staff, exchanged views with these gentlemen on training matters of mutual concern.

Area and language programs, the assessment and evaluation of students, instruction in international communism, training budgets, the acquisition of operationally experienced instructors, the exchange of students, and government-wide training programs were among the topics discussed.

It was generally agreed that subsequent meetings of this kind would be of value in achieving coordination on problems of mutual interest.
